 Contemporary European Studies Department approval is required to use the indicated special topics course to fulfill a major requirement.

New courses may be added to this list annually, as they are developed. An updated list of approved courses may be obtained from the Contemporary European studies Web site (europe.unc.edu/euro). Other courses relevant to the study of contemporary Europe may be taken for credit in the major, if approved by the curriculum advisor.

A modern European foreign language through level 5 is required, chosen from the following languages: Bulgarian, Czech, French, German, Hungarian, Italian, Macedonian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, Serbo-Croatian, Spanish. One approved literature course taught in the language may also count as a theme or elective course if included in the course listings above.

One approved literature course taught in the language may also count as a theme or elective course if included in the course listings above.

Majors are strongly encouraged to apply their language proficiency skills in languages across the curriculum (LAC) courses and complete a UNC-approved study abroad program in the target language.
