MAJOR/MINOR/ELECTIVES

ART HISTORY (ARTH) (12 courses) ♦
1 Studio course
Two ARTH 100 to ARTH 200
Eight ARTH courses > 200 (#,*)

♦ 18 hours ≥ C (not C-) required in Art courses in major core, including studio class. No more than 45 hours of Art department courses will count toward graduation.
 (#) Eight ARTH courses above 200*, apportioned in the following way:
 At least one course from the three geographic areas (see course lists on page two)
 At least one course from each of the three chronological areas (see course lists on page two)
 * A first-year seminar taught by an art history faculty member may be substituted for one ARTH course numbered above 200.
 At least three courses must be numbered above 399
 (##) Offered with three chronological topic areas. It is strongly recommended that students take this seminar no later than the spring of their junior year.
 Intermediate courses (200-399) require at least one previous intro (100-199) course; advanced courses (400-699) require at least one previous intermediate course.
 It is strongly recommended students take a lower-leveled course devoted to the same period, before taking course above 399.
